

BEHIND THE BUSINESS

KEEPING THE POST OFFICE AT THE FOREFRONT OF BUSINESS COMMUNICATIONS

Isle of Man Post Office has been at the heart of the Manx community for over 45 years with 27 branches island-wide, and a dedicated team of over 340 staff supporting the delivery of 40,000 letters and parcels six days a week.

Integrated Mailing Solutions (IMS) is the business communication division of IOMPO, which provides end-to-end tailored communication solutions all under one roof.

With over 20 years' experience, IMS has delivered innovative outsourced communication solutions to the finance and public sector. Specialising in print and document management, it includes, processing of data, printing, envelopment, in preparation for mailing, as well as document scanning to digital. These services help business clients reduce cost, save time, enhance customer relations and can support GDPR obligations. Outsourcing to IMS means that clients can focus on their core business.

All IMS services carry the highest international standards for Data Security (ISO27001), Quality Management (ISO9001) and Electronic Information Management (BS10008). The internationally recognised data security standard is the only ISO accreditation that really matters when it comes to dealing with data, especially with GDPR, and IMS are the first printing, scanning and mailing specialist in the Isle of Man and Channel Islands to achieve it.

Niall Carey, Head of Commercial, said: 'IMS is a crucial part of our business, supporting the Post Office as a whole in delivering services across the island. We are unique in the fact that we can provide a wide range of business services, with all of the relevant accreditations, under one roof. We are proud to support Government and businesses through our expertise to ensure they continue to communicate effectively with their customers, while meeting their regulatory and legal requirements.'

IMS have a dedicated team of account managers who are there to support clients to implement solutions tailored to their business. For more information about IMS and its services visit www.iompost.com/ or contact our sales team on 698444 or sales@iompost.com.
