Makes sure mail follows you home

Stay in touch with your mail

Moving house means remembering 101 different things. So leave one of them to us. Whether you're moving locally or overseas, forever or just temporary, Isle of Man Post Office can redirect all your mail for up to two years.

Redirection is a cost-effective way of continuing to receive mail sent to your former address when you move home or business.

We can even redirect Special and Signed For Deliveries (within the British Isles only), although obviously these will take a little longer than usual so the guaranteed delivery times won't apply. We can also redirect mail for someone who has died, or for whom you have power of attorney.

Preventing identity fraud

Your identity and personal information are valuable. Criminals can find out your personal details and use them to open bank accounts and get credit cards, loans, state benefits and documents such as passports and driving licenses in your name.

The Isle of Man Financial Services Authority recommends that, to reduce the risk of Identity fraud when you move house, you should use a mail redirection service to direct your mail from your old address to your new one for at least a year. For more advice on identity fraud please visit www.gov.im/fcu
